Water district pioneer retires after 32 years

Allan Kelly's ideas often ahead of time

By Terry Snoeyenbos
Staff Writer

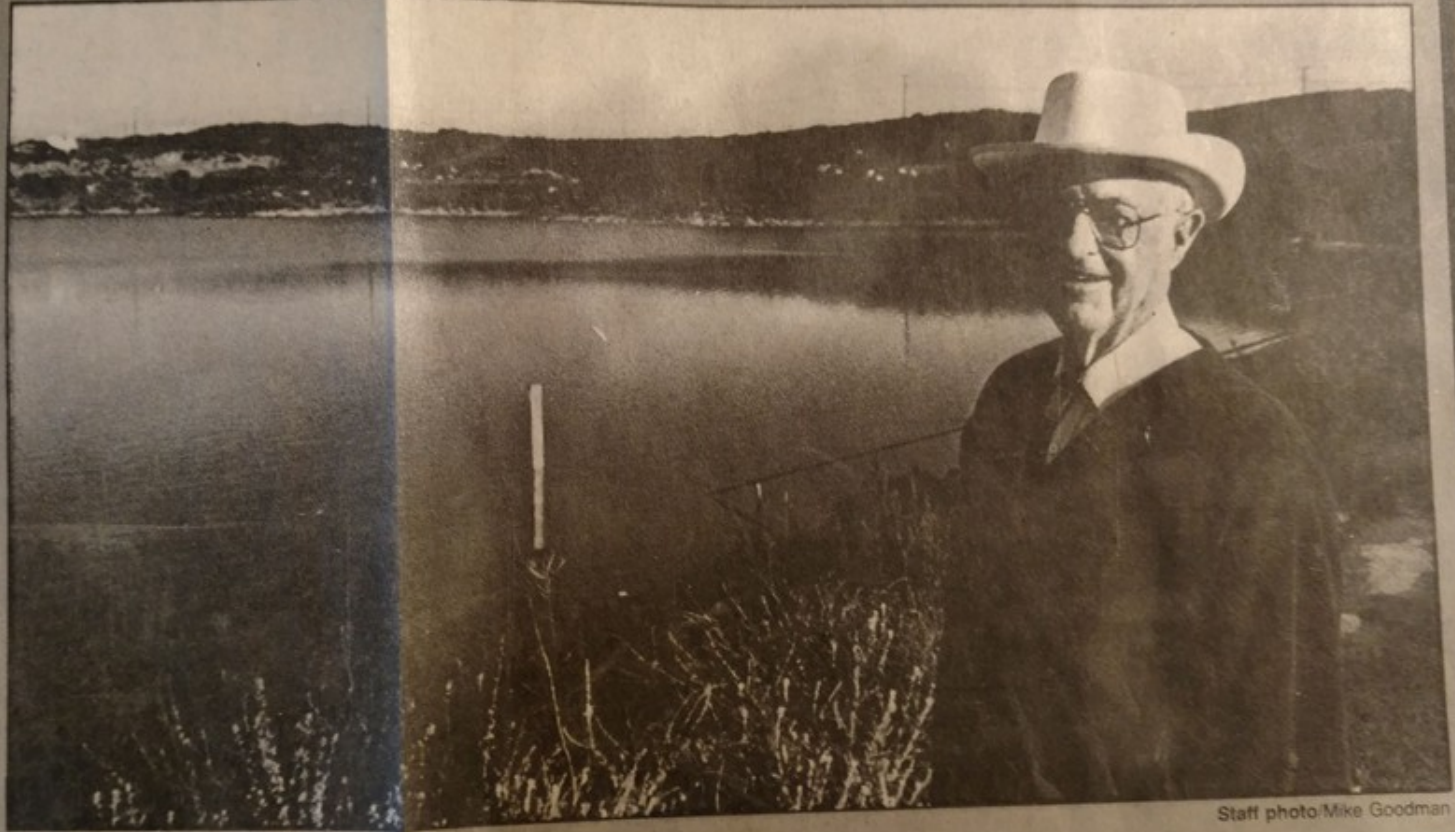

Words like "integrity," "intelligence" and "foresight" repeatedly come into the conversation when colleagues at the Costa Real Municipal Water District speak of Allan O. Kelly.

"He is a man of tremendous integrity," said water board President Margaret Bonas. "He is a kind of thinker, a dreamer, a visionary — he has had many ideas before their time."

"He has an innate ability to see the truth in situations and call a spade a spade," said director Susan Haasl. "He has shown great foresight in planning for future needs."
